(Ocugen or the Company) (NASDAQ: OCGN), a biotechnology company focused on discovering, developing, and commercializing novel gene and cell therapies, biologics, and vaccines, today reported second quarter 2023 financial results along with a general business update.

"We continue to advance our pipeline to provide solutions for patients living with serious diseases but without effective treatment options," said Dr. Shankar Musunuri, Chairman, Chief Executive Officer, and Co-Founder of Ocugen. This quarter, Ocugen plans to share updated data results on OCU400 from its Phase 1/2 clinical trial in patients with retinitis pigmentosa. The Company also continues to have ongoing conversations with government agencies towards obtaining support of its inhaled vaccines for COVID-19 and flu.

"We remain dedicated to our mission to develop cutting-edge therapies with a commitment to ensuring global market access," said Dr. Musunuri. "We are executing plans consistent with our long-term strategy of delivering multiple products to market targeting unmet medical needs utilizing first-in-class platform technologies in gene therapies, cell therapies and vaccines."
