(c) On July 29, 2015, Histogenics Corporation (the “Company”) promoted Stephen Kennedy as the Company’s Chief Technology Officer. In connection with this promotion, the Company and Mr. Kennedy entered into an amended and restated employment agreement (the “Employment Agreement”) dated July 29, 2015. Under the Employment Agreement, the Company will pay Mr. Kennedy a base salary at the gross annual rate of $320,000 and Mr. Kennedy shall be eligible to earn an annual incentive bonus with a target amount equal to 35% of the annual base salary. Subject to the approval of the Company’s board of directors or its compensation committee, the Company shall also grant Mr. Kennedy an additional option (the “Option”) to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company’s Common Stock pursuant to the terms of the Company’s 2013 Equity Incentive Plan and the Company’s standard form Stock Option Agreement. The shares subject to the Option will vest over a four-year period of employment by the Company, with 25% of the shares vesting following July 29, 2015 under the Agreement.

If the Company terminates Mr. Kennedy’s employment without cause or Mr. Kennedy resigns for good reason, the Company will continue to pay Mr. Kennedy his base salary, and he will be entitled to health benefits, for a period of nine months following the termination of his employment. For purposes of the Employment Agreement, cause means Mr. Kennedy’s unauthorized use or disclosure of confidential information or trade secrets which causes material harm to the Company, a material breach of any agreement between Mr. Kennedy and the Company which is not remedied within 15 days after notice from the Company, a material failure to comply with the legal directives of the Company’s Board of Directors which is not remedied within 15 days after notice from the Board of Directors, the sale, possession or use of illegal drugs or habitual intoxication, conviction of, plea of “guilty” or “no contest” to any felony, gross negligence or willful misconduct in the course of performing service to the Company, failure to perform reasonably assigned duties after receiving written notification of such failure from the Board of Directors, or failure to cooperate in good faith with a governmental or internal investigation of the Company, if the Company has requested Mr. Kennedy’s cooperation. For purposes of the Employment Agreement, resignation for good reason means a material reduction in Mr. Kennedy’s base salary, a change in Mr. Kennedy’s title or position with the Company that materially reduces his level of authority or responsibility, a relocation of principal workplace by more than 40 miles or a material breach by the Company of its obligations under the Employment Agreement.

Pursuant to the Company’s Confidential Information and Intellectual Property Assignment Agreement, previously entered into with Mr. Kennedy, for a period of 12 months after the termination of his employment, Mr. Kennedy will be subject to certain restrictions on competition with us and on the solicitation of the Company’s employees and customers. Mr. Kennedy has an at-will employment relationship with the Company.

This summary of the Employment Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Employment Agreement, which is included as Exhibit 10.39 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Mr. Kennedy, age 58, has served as our Senior Vice President of Technical Operations since August 2013. WHEREAS, pursuant to the terms of the Prior Agreement, the Company and Employee desire to amend and restate the Prior Agreement, effective as of the date hereof, to appoint the Employee as Chief Technology Officer and implement a more competitive compensation and benefit package for Employee.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and mutual covenants contained herein, the parties, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

AGREEMENT:

1. Duties and Scope of Employment.

(a) Position. For the term of the Employee’s employment under this Agreement (the “Employment”), the Company agrees to employ the Employee in the position of Chief Technology Officer. The Employee shall report to the Company’s Chief Executive Officer.

(b) Obligations to the Company. During the Employee’s Employment, the Employee (i) shall devote his full business efforts and time to the Company, (ii) shall not engage in any other employment, consulting or other business activity that would create a conflict of interest with the Company, (iii) shall not assist any person or entity in competing with the Company or in preparing to compete with the Company and (iv) shall comply with the Company’s policies and rules, as they may be in effect from time to time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Employee may, subject to prior approval of the Board or Chief Executive Officer, participate in professional and charitable activities and serve on boards of directors and boards of advisors of businesses and non-profit organizations that do not compete with the Company, provided that such activities do not, individually or in the aggregate, interfere materially with the performance of the Employee’s duties to the Company.

(c) No Conflicting Obligations. The Employee represents and warrants to the Company that the Employee is under no obligations or commitments, whether contractual or otherwise, that are inconsistent with the Employee's obligations under this Agreement. The Employee represents and warrants that the Employee will not use or disclose, in connection with his Employment, any trade secrets or other proprietary information or intellectual property in which the Employee or any other person has any right, title or interest and that his Employment will not infringe or violate the rights of any other person. The Employee represents and warrants to the Company that the Employee has returned all property and confidential information belonging to any prior employer.

(d) Effective Date. The Employee shall assume the role of Chief Technology Officer on July 29, 2015.

(e) Definitions. Certain capitalized terms are defined in Section 9.

2. Cash and Incentive Compensation.

(a) Salary. The Company shall pay the Employee as compensation a base salary at a gross annual rate of not less than $320,000. Such salary shall be payable in accordance with the Company's standard payroll procedures.

(b) Incentive Bonuses. The Employee shall be eligible for an annual incentive bonus with a target amount equal to 35% of the Employee's Base Salary. Such bonus (if any) shall be awarded based on objective or subjective criteria established in advance by the Board or the Compensation Committee of the Board. The determinations of the Board or its Compensation Committee with respect to such bonus shall be final and binding. Any incentive bonus for a fiscal year shall in no event be paid later than 90 days after the close of such fiscal year. The Employee shall not be entitled to an incentive bonus if he is not employed by the Company on the date when such bonus is payable. The amount of any incentive bonus for the fiscal year in which the Employee's Employment begins shall be prorated, based on the number of days of Employment during such fiscal year.

(c) Stock Options.

Subject to the approval of the Board or the Compensation Committee of the Board, the Company shall grant the Employee an option to purchase an additional 50,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock (the "Option"). The Option shall be granted upon the effective date of the Employee's appointment at the closing stock price on the date of the Agreement. The per-share exercise price of the Option shall be equal to the fair market value per share of the Company's Common Stock on the date the Option is granted, as determined by the Board or its Compensation Committee. The term of the Option shall be 10 years, subject to earlier expiration in the event of the termination of the Employee's Employment. The grant of the Option shall be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan and in the Company's standard form of Stock Option Agreement. The Employee shall vest in 25% of the Option shares after the first 12 months of continuous service and shall vest in the remaining Option shares in equal monthly installments over the next three years of continuous service. Vesting of the Option shall accelerate in full if (i) the Company is subject to a Change in Control before the Employee's service with the Company terminates and (ii) the Employee is subject to an Involuntary Termination within 12 months after such Change in Control.

3. Vacation and Employee Benefits. During his Employment, the Employee shall be eligible for paid vacations in accordance with the Company's vacation policy, as it may be amended from time to time; provided, however, that in no event will the Employee be entitled to fewer than four weeks' paid vacation per year. During his Employment, the Employee shall also be eligible to participate in the employee benefit plans maintained by the Company, subject in each case to the generally applicable terms and conditions of the plan in question and to the determinations of any person or committee administering such plan.

4. Business Expenses. During his Employment, the Employee shall be authorized to incur necessary and reasonable travel, entertainment and other business expenses in connection with the Employee's duties hereunder. The Company shall reimburse the Employee for such expenses upon presentation of an itemized account and appropriate supporting documentation, all in accordance with the Company's generally applicable policies. Any reimbursement shall (a) be paid promptly but not later than the last day of the calendar year following the year in which the expense was incurred, (b) not be affected by any other expenses that are eligible for reimbursement in any calendar year and (c) not be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit.

5. Term of Employment.

(a) Employment at Will. The Employee's Employment with the Company shall be "at will," meaning that either the Employee or the Company shall be entitled to terminate the Employee's Employment at any time and for any reason, with or without Cause. Any contrary representations that may have been made to the Employee shall be superseded by this Agreement. This Agreement shall constitute the full and complete agreement between the Employee and the Company on the "at will" nature of the Employee's Employment, which may only be changed in an express written agreement signed by the Employee and a duly authorized officer of the Company. The termination of the Employee's Employment shall not limit or otherwise affect his obligations under Section 7 below.

(b) Rights upon Termination. Except as expressly provided in Section 6 below, upon the termination of the Employee's Employment, the Employee shall be entitled only to the compensation, benefits and expense reimbursements that the Employee has earned under this Agreement before the effective date of the termination. The payments under this Agreement shall fully discharge all responsibilities of the Company to the Employee.

6. Termination Benefits.

(a) Preconditions. Any other provision of this Agreement notwithstanding, the remaining Subsections of this Section 6 shall not apply unless each of the following requirements is satisfied:

(i) The Employee has executed a general release of all claims in a form prescribed by the Company. The Employee shall execute and return the release on or before the date specified by the Company in the prescribed form (the “Release Deadline”). The Release Deadline shall in no event be later than 50 days after the Employee’s Separation. If the Employee fails to return the release on or before the Release Deadline, or if the Employee revokes the release, then the Employee shall not be entitled to the benefits described in this Section 6.

(ii) The Employee has returned all property of the Company in the Employee’s possession.

(iii) If requested by the Board, the Employee has resigned as a member of the Board and as a member of the boards of directors of all subsidiaries of the Company, to the extent applicable.

(b) Severance Pay. If, during the term of this Agreement, the Employee is subject to an Involuntary Termination, then the Company shall pay the Employee an amount equal to the Employee’s Base Salary for a period of nine months following the Separation (the “Continuation Period”). Such severance payments shall be paid at the Base Salary rate in effect at the time of the Separation and in accordance with the Company’s standard payroll procedures. The severance payments shall commence within 60 days after the Employee’s Separation and, once they commence, shall include any unpaid amounts accrued from the date of the Employee’s Separation. However, if the 60-day period described in the preceding sentence spans two calendar years, then the payments shall in any event begin in the second calendar year. In addition, The Company shall pay the Employee any accrued benefits, including earned but unpaid salary, earned but unpaid incentive bonuses, accrued and unused vacation time, unreimbursed business expenses, and any vested benefits under the Company’s benefit plans.

(c) Health Insurance. If, during the period of Employment, the Employee is subject to an Involuntary Termination, and if the Employee elects to continue health insurance coverage under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (“COBRA”) for the Employee and, if applicable, his dependents following the Separation, then the Company shall pay the employer portion of the monthly premium under COBRA for the Employee and, if applicable, such dependents until the earliest of (i) the close of the Continuation Period, (ii) the expiration of the Employee’s continuation coverage under COBRA or (iii) the date when the Employee receives substantially equivalent health insurance coverage in connection with new employment or self-employment.

7. Confidential Information and Intellectual Property Assignment Agreement.
